Memorial Hospital of Union County CMO Lands on National List of “People to Know”

Marysville, Ohio – Victor A. Trianfo, DO, Memorial Hospital of Union County’s Chief Medical Officer (CMO), has been named to Becker’s Hospital Review list of 500 People to Know in Healthcare.

Becker’s Hospital Review is the nation’s leading magazine for hospital business news and analysis for healthcare executives. The list is compiled by the editorial staff of Becker’s Hospital Review and includes their picks for the top 500 individuals who have influenced and positively shaped healthcare in the United States.

This prestigious list is comprised of physicians, hospital executives, policymakers, advocates and other leaders and recognizes their dedication to improving the healthcare industry for the patients and communities they serve.

“My recognition is a reflection of the dedicated staff and employees of Memorial Hospital who are engaged in providing the community quality health care,” remarks Trianfo.

Dr. Trianfo has been with Memorial Hospital since 1999. Before his appointment as CMO in 2013, he served in many other leadership capacities including, emergency department physician, assistant director of emergency medicine, hospitalist director, vice president of the medical staff and physician quality liaison.
