Memorial Hospital Medical Staff Award Scholarships Graduating Union County Residents to Study Health-Related Majors

Marysville, Ohio – Five high school seniors who live in Union County and who plan to study health-related college majors received $1,000 Memorial Hospital Medical Staff Scholarships at recent high school award ceremonies:

- Abigail Anderson, a senior at North Union High School, plans to study Nursing at Ohio Northern University.
- Katherine Hazelbaker, a senior at Marysville High School, plans to study Nursing at the University of Kentucky.
- Olivia Herzog, a senior at Marysville High School, plans to study Biology on a Pre-Med track at The Ohio State University.
- Abigail Hubbs, a senior at Fairbanks High School, plans to study Pre-Med and Business at Miami University.
- Peyton Mast, a senior at Jonathan Alder High School, plans to study Nursing at The Ohio State University.

Abigail Anderson, Katherine Hazelbaker, Olivia Herzog, and Abigail Hubbs have participated in the Memorial Hospital Student Volunteer Program and collectively dedicated over 420 volunteer hours to Memorial since 2014.

The applications were submitted to the Union County Foundation, which administers the scholarships. The Memorial Hospital Medical Staff has awarded scholarships to area seniors for twelve years.
