Memorial Hospital Medical Staff Awards Scholarships

Graduating Union County Students to Study Health-Related Majors

Marysville, Ohio – Four high school seniors who live in Union County and who plan to study health-related college majors received $1,000 Memorial Hospital Medical Staff Scholarships at recent high school award ceremonies:

- Emily Daniel, a senior at Marysville High School, plans to study Neuroscience at Wright State University.
- LeAnna Dunn, a senior at North Union High School, plans to study Medical Assistant Technology at the University of Northwestern Ohio.
- Jacob Nicol, a senior at Fairbanks High School, plans to study Nursing at the University of Toledo.
- Paiten Riley, a senior at Marysville High School, plans to study Pediatric Occupational Therapy at Miami University.

Emily Daniel and LeAnna Dunn have participated in the Memorial Hospital Student Volunteer Program and collectively dedicated over 250 volunteer hours to Memorial since 2015.

The applications were submitted to the Union County Foundation, which administers the scholarships. The Memorial Hospital Medical Staff has awarded scholarships to area seniors for thirteen years.
